Today we are learning about a woman named Harriet Tubman. Write about what you are discovering about her:

Harriet and other enslaved people sang songs based off of stories in the Bible that reminded them God wanted all people to be free. Do you have a favorite song or Bible story that reminds you of God's love too?

The Quakers were abolitionists (people who wanted to abolish slavery) took great personal risks by help people escape. Why do you think they did that?

---

---

How does Harriet Tubman remind you of Moses?

Freeing people who are enslaved is one way of making wrong things right - something Jesus calls us to do! Brainstorm 3 ways you can join God's work of making something wrong to be right:

Draw a picture of what you imagine the New Creation will be like when EVERYTHING will be made right! (No tears, no pain, no captivity, no sickness, no fear...)

How did Harriet Tubman work to make wrong things right?
