How do words either help or hurt?

---

---

After everything was created, Adam joined God's work of creation by using his words to name the animals! How can YOU use your words to be part of God's work?

---

---

---

James says that words can be like a spark that starts an entire forest on fire. What do you think James meant when he said that?

---

---

---

Write four ways you can use your words to honor God and honor people:

This lil dino named _____ (give it a name!) is a good listener, slow to speak, honors God, and respects it's neighbor. It's speech reflects God's love! Fill in the word bubbles with what you think it might say:

Write a poem that includes the words: tongue, praise, and speech...
